

RETIRED CHIEF KENNETH M. HALL

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY:

*1998-2004 Fire Marshal / Battalion Chief,
City of Torrance, California*

*Part Time 1980-1999 Fire Science
Instructor, El Camino College*

*1993-1998 Hazardous Materials
Administrative Chief*

*1961-1993 Fire Marshal/Battalion Chief,
Special Services, Assistant Fire
Marshal/Captain, Engine Company
Commander / Captain, Fire/Arson
Investigator, Inspector, Firefighter
throughout the city.*

Kenneth M. Hall retired from the City of Torrance Fire Department with forty three years experience in all phases of the Fire Service.

At the time of retirement, Chief Hall held the rank of Battalion

Chief and was serving as the Fire Marshall for the City of Torrance, California. His expertise includes; Fire Prevention, Hazardous Materials regulation / Administration, Fire Investigation, Code Development, Fire Suppression and Management. He also has extensive experience assisting the public and industry in Fire Service. He interacted on a daily basis with all departments within the city, and he is well versed in human relation skills.

Chief Hall has participated in fire code development and has served on various regulatory committees during his career. Key highlights are:

- Served on the Secretary of the EPA Committee to establish regulations for the Certified Unified Program Agencies (CUPA)
- Participated on the committee that formulated tools for communications the elements of the Risk Management Plan (RMP) for the Los Angeles area.
- Served on the California State Fire Marshal's Fire and Life Safety advisory committee,
- Actively participated in the California Model Code development process for 20 years.
- Served on the California State Fire Marshals add hoc committee for formulating storage requirements for hazardous materials.

